Until further notice...

In these challenging and unprecedented times (we're hearing that a lot these days, aren't we?) the AIFP are offering monthly briefings and conversations on how Covid-19 is affecting our industry, our businesses and our livelihoods.

The first Covid-19 Briefing will be held online at 7pm, Wednesday April 22, 2020.

Wendy Waack from TAG Financial will be our special guest as she talks about what businesses and individuals can do to secure their businesses and livelihoods in these challenging times.

The team at TAG Financial understand that the result matters. By combining experienced accountants and financial advisers, great systems and a results mindset, TAG provides quality independent advice that makes a genuine difference to your outcomes.

Wendy is a Partner at TAG.

This event is complimentary for Members and a $15 registration fee will apply for non-members.

Members and Non-Members alike must register to participate in this event.

Future Covid-19 Briefings will be held on an as needs basis. Given the changing environment our goal is to offer these briefings at least once a month. Further dates will be advised as we move forward. Watch out on the AIFP Facebook page!
